Our Settler range of plans are ideal for small acreage or the first home buyer.

The standardised sizing and simple layouts ensure value for money.

James Hardie offer a free design if you chose to clad in there Scyon products.

These homes look great in a bush setting when clad in low maintenance colorbond cladding. A popular change is to have a full length deck one side only.

Quality fittings are used but we limit the choices to ensure that the cost stays at an affordable level.

These can be built to any stage for the owner builder to complete or finished ready to move in.

Cooking package can be upgraded to a built in rather than an upright.
